Dear Year 5 Parents,

Utilising the school holiday period is important, especially to Year 5 students, where it is crucial to begin the upcoming term with the ability and self-confidence to achieve academic goals – the selective high school placement.

Pre-uni New College's spring holiday program is structured to accommodate our students' high academic standards that are expected at the time of the year.

By attending our spring holiday courses, students will systematically revise and reinforce the foundation concepts and improve their test scores.

Spring Holiday Selective Trial Test Course (8 - 12 October 2018)

The Year 5 Selective Trial Test Course (STTC) will continue throughout the spring holiday period. The STTC in the 2nd week of the spring holiday will be an intensive trial testing practice course, consisting of two sessions per day (English, Writing, Mathematics and General Ability test) over five days, which is the equivalent to 10 weeks of regular STTC term course.

During each trial test session, different question types are covered, and students receive instructions on the best strategies for answering the selective school exam style questions.
